

Privacy Policy

Llama Association of Australasia Inc

The Privacy Act affects all individuals, clubs, societies and businesses. The Llama Association of Australasia Inc. has taken the initiative to state our policy in relation to the collection of personal details from the association's members and any person purchasing association goods or making general enquiries.

- ) Our database is maintained for the exclusive purpose of recording member information for mailing publications, correspondence, providing llama related information and producing member lists.
- ) At no time is the information offered for outside commercial use.
- ) Every endeavour is made to maintain our database as current. This is however reliant upon information received.
- ) Information gained from non-members is used for the purpose of their enquiry only and not retained on the society's official database.